

Kids/Teens—Improv Class/Training

S...CAP (Slow...Children at Play) is booking the next round of Kids/Teens Improvisational Class for ages 10 - 16. S...CAP has been offering improv classes since 2004. This six-week session covers all the basics of improv through a variety of exercises and games. This class fills up so be sure to book your spot now! Some of the benefits of this fun and supportive class:

- Enhanced spontaneity, focus, commitment & creative play
- Stronger development of sensory skills (audio, visual, etc.)
- Heightening of listening, concentration & creative skills for auditioning & performing
- Developing self-confidence for both performers & non-performers

Class Overview:

- 6 week session
- Saturdays 11:00am - 1:00pm
- February 18 - March 24, 2012
- Broad scope training in improvisation. Curriculum will involve a diverse variety of fun improv exercises, games & scenes in a safe and supportive environment. Training will emphasize commitment to 'yes and,' spontaneity, stage awareness and confidence building.
- Class fee: $200
- Location: The Avery Schreiber Theatre (Alley Stage)
11050 Magnolia Blvd
North Hollywood, CA 91601

**Class is facilitated by Rosanne Limeres, a veteran performer in the Core division of Slow...Children at Play.*

**Rosanne Limeres has been working as a professional actress and singer for over 20 years. She trained extensively at I.O. West in Hollywood and is currently a troupe member of Slow...Children at Play. Rosanne brings her creative passion and love of comedy and laughter to her teaching. She has worked for several years with kids in extracurricular programs at various schools within the Los Angeles Unified School District. Rosanne also performed and directed interactive games with kids for Kiddie Antics, an entertainment-based company for children in Los Angeles. Along with her extensive stage experience, she has a variety of film and TV credits, and is a member of AFTRA.*

Tim Simek, owner and director of S...CAP, is the administrator of both the adult and kid/teen classes. He has been performing, producing & directing improv shows as well as conducting improv & acting classes for 20 years. He has extensive film & TV credits and is best known for his role as the 'Deputy' in "What's Eating Gilbert Grape." Tim performs with the Core division of S...CAP and is the instructor for the adult improv class, and also teaches improv at L.A. Pierce College. He founded S...CAP in 1998.

\*To sign up for the class, you can call our hotline at (818) 410-7529 or email Rosanne Limeres at rosyfuture@socal.rr.com*

S...CAP is now in its 14th season of performing comedy improv shows combined with sketch and multi-media. S...CAP has a strong audience base and continues to produce creative & fun comedy shows.

Visit our website at www.slowchildrenimprov.com for more information on the group, cast & upcoming shows. {S...CAP Hotline: (818) 410-PLAY}

**All Rights Reserved 2004 - 2012. Slow...Children at Play {S...CAP}****